

Criteria

Minimum Criteria for Designation as Springs Best

Business owner, management and employees must be highly knowledgeable and experienced in their business category for at least one year.

Business is visited and inspected by the certification director of the SpringsBest executive committee and findings are presented to the membership

Business must present its qualifications for review to the SpringsBest membership

SpringsBest membership must approve by vote acceptance of the business as a SpringsBest business

Business must sustain good standing in the SpringsBest organization.